

Judy Whiteman

Judy Whiteman is passionate about helping people achieve the success they desire for themselves, their people and their organisations.

Judy has lived and worked in Australia, UK, Hong Kong, Vanuatu and New Zealand. Her 30 year career includes 16 years in general manager, managing director and senior executive positions in the global financial services industry, where she demonstrated a strong drive to achieve results, develop people and lead change.

In addition to her business career Judy has been involved for over 20 years in the not-for-profit sector in several countries as a volunteer, board member and advisor/consultant.

She has been based in NZ since late 2000 and began working independently in 2003. Her portfolio includes executive coaching and mentoring, facilitation, consulting and acting CEO roles in both the profit and not-for-profit sector. She has also been a director (executive & non-executive) on various boards.

Judy has a BA in Accounting, a Diploma International Company Directors course, and is a member of numerous professional associations (including NZIM, Institute of Directors in New Zealand, Fellow of Financial Institute of Australasia, Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia, Fellow of Australian Institute of Company Directors, Williamson Fellow).

Judy brings passion and energy to her work. She is actively engaged in her own professional and personal development. Her clients describe her as open and honest, practical and down-to-earth with strong leadership qualities, and the ability to challenge, question and motivate.
